Plaintiff,		DOCKET NO.: v.
WAL-MART STORES, INC.		JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
180 Levittown Ctr.	:
Levittown, PA 19055	:
Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Stephanie Scancella (hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiff," unless indicated otherwise), by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been initiated by Plaintiff against Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. for violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended ("ADA" - 42 USC §§ 12101 et. seq.) and the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA" - 29 U.S.C. §2601 et. seq.).<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff asserts, inter alia, that she was unlawfully terminated from Defendant. As a direct consequence of Defendant's unlawful actions, Plaintiff seeks damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the instant action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1333(a)(4) because it arises under laws of the United States and seeks redress for violations of civil rights under the FMLA and the ADA.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant's contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction in order to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district.

PARTIES

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult individual, with an address as set forth in the caption.

7. Defendant Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant") is a publically-traded commercial enterprise with retail stores all over the United States, including the location at which Plaintiff worked in Levittown, PA (as identified in the above-caption).

8. At all times relevant herein, Defendant acted by and through its agents, servants and/or employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendant.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

10. Plaintiff was hired by Defendant on or about June 8, 2014.

11. Plaintiff was employed with Defendant as a sales associate.

12. Plaintiff has and continues to suffer from various disabilities, including but not limited to anxiety, which (at times) limits her ability to perform some daily life activities, including but not limited to working, sleeping, and engaging in social interaction.

13. Despite Plaintiff's aforesaid health conditions, she was still able to perform the duties of her job well with Defendant; however, at times, Plaintiff required reasonable accommodations (discussed further infra).

14. Plaintiff apprised Defendant's management, including but not limited to Stan (last name unknown) – Assistant Manager, and Sue (last name unknown) – General Manager, of her aforesaid health conditions and requested reasonable accommodations, including but not limited to later start time once every six (6) weeks so that she could see her doctor for her aforesaid health conditions.

15. Defendant's management often times refused to schedule Plaintiff to come in a little later once every six (6) weeks and on at least one occasion assessed points against Plaintiff for coming into work late one day because she had to attend a doctor's appointment (related to her aforementioned disabilities).

16. In addition to treating for and caring for her own serious health conditions, Plaintiff's son also suffered from serious health conditions, including but not limited to asthma and severe allergies, which required Plaintiff to miss intermittent and block time from work (FMLA-qualifying intermittent and block medical leave).

17. Plaintiff apprised Sue, Stan, and Jonathan (last name unknown) – Manager, of her son's serious health conditions and need for time off from work to care for her son.

18. Despite Defendant's management's knowledge of her son's aforesaid serious health conditions and need for intermittent and block medical leave to care for her son, Defendant's management never informed Plaintiff of her individualized FMLA rights and instead assessed points against her for days that she would take off related to her son's serious health conditions (days which should have been FMLA-protected).

19. On or about June 8, 2016, Plaintiff was informed by her Assistant Manager, Stan, that she was being terminated from her employment with Defendant. The reason provided by Stan for Plaintiff's termination was "attendance."

20. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that she was terminated because of (1) her own actual/perceived disabilities; (2) her record of disabilities; and/or (3) her requested accommodations (including but not limited to a flex schedule under the FMLA).

21. Plaintiff also believes and therefore avers that she was terminated for (1) being perceived as distracted for dealing with her son's health problems outside of work; (2) being perceived as having to miss too much time from work to care for her son (time which would have been FMLA protected); and/or (3) other reasons in association with her son's health problems.

First Cause of Action

Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as Amended ("ADAAA")

([1] Actual & Perceived Disability Discrimination; [2] Retaliation; [3] Failure to Accommodate)

22. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

23. Plaintiff has and continues to suffer from qualifying disabilities under the ADA (discussed supra) which, at times, affects her ability to perform some daily life activities, including but not limited to working, focusing, sleeping, and engaging in social interaction.

24. Even though Plaintiff was able to perform the duties of her job well with Defendant, she did need reasonable accommodations at times for her disabilities, including but not limited to the ability to have a flex schedule one day every six (6) weeks so she could attend a doctor's appointments related to her aforesaid health conditions.

25. Defendant, often times, would refuse to grant Plaintiff's aforesaid reasonable accommodation request and on at least one occasion assessed her points for coming to work late as a result of having to attend a doctor's appointment related to her aforesaid health conditions.

26. Plaintiff was ultimately terminated and told that the reason for her termination was "attendance."

27. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that she was terminated because of her [1] record of impairment; [2] known or perceived health problems; and/or [3] requests for reasonable accommodations.

28. Plaintiff seeks relief for the foregoing actions, as such actions constitute violations of the ADAAA.

Second Cause of Action

Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as Amended ("ADAAA")
(Associational Disability Discrimination)

29. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

30. During her employment with Defendant, Plaintiff requested and took time off from work due to her son's serious health conditions.

31. Plaintiff had advised Defendant's management of her son's serious health conditions and her need for time off to care for her son. In response, Defendant's management treated her with hostility and assessed points against her for days she needed to take off related to her son's health conditions (which should have been FMLA protected).

32. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was terminated by Defendant for (a) being perceived as distracted for dealing with her son's health problems outside of work; (b) being perceived as having to miss too much time from work to care for her son; and (c) other reasons in association with her son's health problems.

Third Cause of Action
Violations of the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA")
(Interference & Retaliation)

33. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

34. Plaintiff was an eligible employee under the definitional terms of the FMLA, 29 U.S.C. § 2611(a)(i)(ii).

35. Plaintiff requested leave from Defendant, her employer, with whom she had been employed for at least twelve months pursuant to the requirements of 29 U.S.C.A § 2611(2)(i).

36. Plaintiff had at least 1,250 hours of service with the Defendant during her last full year of employment.

37. Defendant is engaged in an industry affecting commerce and employs fifty (50) or more employees for each working day during each of the twenty (20) or more calendar work weeks in the current or proceeding calendar year, pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A § 2611(4)(A)(i).

38. Plaintiff was entitled to receive leave pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A § 2612 (a)(1) for a total of twelve (12) work weeks of leave on a block or intermittent basis for her own serious health conditions and/or for her son's serious health conditions.

39. Defendant committed interference and retaliation violations of the FMLA by (1) failing to inform Plaintiff of her individualized FMLA rights; (2) assessing attendance points against Plaintiff for time off that should have been FMLA-protected; (3) terminating Plaintiff for requesting and/or exercising her FMLA rights and/or for taking FMLA-qualifying leave; (4) counting FMLA-qualifying time off against Plaintiff in making the decision to issue her discipline; (5) counting FMLA-qualifying time off against Plaintiff in making the decision to terminate Plaintiff; (6) considering Plaintiff's FMLA leave needs in making the decision to terminate her; (7) issuing her discipline and terminating her in order to dissuade Plaintiff and/or other employees from utilizing FMLA leave; and (8) issuing her discipline and terminating her to prevent her from taking further FMLA-qualifying leave in the future.

40. These actions as aforesaid constitute violations of the FMLA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendant is to be prohibited from continuing to maintain its illegal policy, practice or custom of discriminating/retaliating against employees and are to be ordered to promulgate an effective policy against such unlawful acts and to adhere thereto;

B. Defendant is to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendant's illegal actions, including but not limited to past lost earnings, future lost earnings, salary, pay increases, bonuses, medical and other benefits, training, promotions, pension, and seniority.

Plaintiff should be accorded those benefits illegally withheld from the date she first suffered retaliation/discrimination at the hands of Defendant until the date of verdict;

C. Plaintiff is to be awarded liquidated and/or punitive damages, as permitted by applicable law(s) alleged asserted herein, in an amount believed by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendants for their willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendants or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

D. Plaintiff is to be accorded any and all other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper and appropriate including for emotional distress;

E. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable legal fees as provided by applicable federal and state law;

F. Any verdict in favor of Plaintiff is to be molded by the Court to maximize the financial recovery available to Plaintiff in light of the caps on certain damages set forth in applicable federal law; and

G. Plaintiff's claims are to receive a trial by jury to the extent allowed by applicable law. Plaintiff has also endorsed this demand on the caption of this Complaint in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b).

Respectfully submitted,
